 PUBLIC SUPPORT plays a KEY ROLE in the success of the festival - THANK YOU!

The Sam Steele Society is a non-profit organization run by dedicated volunteers
Who strive to showcase everything about Cranbrook!

Mission:

To organize and work cooperatively with all sectors of the community in providing a festival that honours regional history, promotes family fun, gives opportunities for skills development and volunteerism and creates a source of community pride.

Cranbrook's premier summer event is one of the BEST community festivals in British Columbia.
Overall 2016 attendance was estimated at 23,500 conservatively.
